FIFTIETH CAMP MEETING L. D.S.

—Dist. Supt. Newlands Bids People Goodspeed for Coming Year Sunday Evening.

With a somewhat diminished audience the Sunday evening service began with a praise service led by Mr. Reynolds. The service was a most successful one. Rev. Harry Taylor then spoke and after a few remarks read the scripture lesson. Before he began the sermon he called on Mrs. E. E. Keach to offer prayer. Mr. Reynolds said I Love Him, to the tune of Old Black Joe.

Mr. Taylor took for his subject The Story of the Prodigal Son, and gave many illustrations closing with the story of his own return to his home. At the close of his sermon, a short prayer was offered by Mr. Reynolds. The service was a most successful one. Rev. Harry Taylor then spoke and after a few remarks read the scripture lesson.
